

National AGM 2012

Golden Horizons

March 30 - April 1

Embroiderers' Guild

Don't miss out!

Following a good response to the Guild's AGM weekend in Southport this year all the places on the advertised and extra added workshops have now been fully booked.

While you may have missed out on a workshop, please be assured there will be plenty of other things for you to see and do while attending the conference.

We still have plenty of places on both the Friday morning and afternoon tours to the Liverpool Anglican Cathedral where you will have a guided tour as part of your visit.

On display at the Convention Centre there will be a wonderful exhibition of approximately 70 pieces from The Guild Collection – these pieces are not only a colourful and interesting collection of embroideries, they include an exciting mixture of embroidery techniques to inspire all levels of embroiderers.

Also on display will be the Olympic Postcards – a sight to be seen! These embroideries will not only make you gasp with delight at the ingenuity of each postcard, but will no doubt make you smile at the truly beautiful sight they create both separately, and as a combined display.

The exciting group of traders who will be attending the weekend are:

The Crewel Work Company – www.crewelwork.com

The Bead Trail – www.thebeadtrail.co.uk

Empress Mills – www.empressmills.co.uk

Golden Hinde – www.golden-hinde.co.uk

Texart – hand dyed threads, fabrics and fibres – www.texartcreative.com

Plus the Guild bookshop

The Sewing and Knitting Centre Southport will be there demonstrating embellishing machines – www.sewingmachine.co.uk

and on Saturday the Quaker Tapestry will have a stand
